Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-15, 17-23, 25-29, 31-46, 48-55, 57-61, 63-79, 81-88, 90, 91 and 96-102 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The present invention is directed to sharing screen information from one device with another device and, more particularly, to using a separate host device to mediate a screen sharing session between the two devices. Each independent claim identifies the uniquely and distinct features "making a session key available to the remote device and to the viewing device, the session key providing access to the screen sharing session; receiving session keys from both the remote device and the viewing device; and establishing the screen sharing session in response to receiving the session keys". The closest prior art, Boss et al. (US 5,758,110) and Foster et al. (US 5,583,993), disclose conventional screen sharing systems, either singularly or in combination, fail to anticipate or render the above limitations obvious.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
